

Final Project Submission Instructions

Before you submit:

1. Once you've written your answers, go through each criteria item in the project rubric and do your best to honestly evaluate where you think your answers fall.
2. If you think any of your answers "does not meet expectations" for any criteria item, you should modify or improve it
3. Once you're confident that all of your answers "meets expectations," go ahead and follow the submission instructions to submit!

Project Submission Instructions

1. Review the final project rubric. When you feel confident that your project will pass, continue to the next step.
2. Send an email to introds-project@udacity.com. This email should contain:
 - a. Your Name
 - b. The email address you use to log into Udacity.com
 - c. An electronic copy of your answers in an html, or pdf document. Please do not use doc or docx format because there are compatibility issues across different operating systems. If you use a word processing program such as Microsoft Word or LibreOffice, once you are done with your project, please save it as a pdf document and include it in your submission.
 - d. Which data set that you used for your analysis, original or improved dataset
 - i. Original data set --the same data set that you worked with throughout the class
 - ii. Improved data set -- has additional weather and subway data points and variables
 - e. A list of Web sites, books, forums, blog posts, github repositories etc that you referred to or used in this submission (Add N/A if you did not use such resources)
 - f. Please carefully read the following statement and include it in your email:
"I hereby confirm that this submission is my work. I have cited above the origins of any parts of the submission that were taken from Websites, books, forums, blog posts, github repositories, etc. By including this in my email, I understand that I will be expected to explain my work in a video call with a Udacity coach before I can receive my verified certificate."
3. You will receive a confirmation email from support@udacity.com that your submission was received.

4. Once a project evaluator has reviewed your project, you will receive an email from your coach with a completed rubric and instructions for next steps.
5. If your project was evaluated as “passing,” you will schedule an exit interview. The purpose of this interview is to discuss your write-up and verify that you are the person who created it. Don’t worry, this interview is not intended to be difficult or stressful.
